CATALOGUE ESSAY

As the name suggests, the Piccadilly Princess Royal Colours is a colourful, vibrant and magnificent addition to the luxury watches at Backes & Strauss. The London brand's inimitable craftsmanship ensures that each of this timepiece's 225 white and natural coloured diamonds are impeccably placed, allowing this ladies' watch to gleam. This mosaic of 66 different colour hues is composed of 65 diamonds on the dial and a further 138 on the bracelet. The results of such scrupulous stone selection are apparent in what is an exceptionally dazzling synergy, with the varying sizes of the ten cuts made during the diamond cutting process, merging to create a refreshingly unique timepiece.
