CATALOGUE ESSAY

Mysterious and discreet with a hint of luxury, the Regent Royal Black Knight is a steel masterpiece set with 2,106 black diamonds on its case and bracelet (26.27cts) using the serti neige technique, where different sized diamonds are set side by side, playing on variations in diameter; a skill requiring the experience of only the best craftsmen. This luxury timepiece is elegantly completed with Backes & Strauss' signature white Ideal Cut diamond in the crown (0.12cts), also known as the Jewel in the Crown. Flawlessly blurring the lines between jewellery and watchmaking, Backes & Strauss' Regent Royal Black Knight serves as an ode to the brand's heritage as the oldest diamond company in the world as well as its jewellery know-how.
