CATALOGUE ESSAY

The Blancpain, Fifty Fathoms, No Rad, reference 0235-3631-55B. comes in a stainless steel case measuring 40.30 mm in diameter. The case features a box-type sapphire crystal and the characteristic diver's bezel with a sapphire insert on the front side and a sapphire display case back on the rear side. Equipped with a Blancpain signed screw-lock winding crown, the case is water-resistant to 30 ATM / 300 M / 30 BAR / 984 Ft. The dial features a matte black background and cream-colored Super-LumiNOVA filled hands and markers. The logo and the inscription indicating that no radioactive material is used in terms of phosphorus are located at 6 o'clock. The Blancpain caliber 1151, automatic movement with a full-size rotor and 28-jewels consists of 210 parts, operates at a frequency of 3Hz (21.600vph), and offers a long power reserve of 100 hours (thanks to the twin-barrel system) when fully wound. The model, which is limited to only 500 pieces, is complemented by a black perforated rubber strap, reminiscent of the Tropic straps of the period, and a stainless steel pin buckle.
