CATALOGUE ESSAY

The Bovet Dimier Récital 20 Astérium Watch, reference R20N003 comes in a Platinum case measuring 46 mm in diameter. The case features a Round / wedge-shaped translucent dome, made of blue sapphire, in which stars and constellations are laser-engraved, also filled them in with Super-Luminova so that they will light up at night. The outer ring shows the twenty-four hours of the day, while at the same time showing the visible part of the night sky. On the right side of it, we find the retrograde minutes, as well as the power reserve indicator. The left side is reserved for a moon phase indicator but also shows the difference between the time we use and the solar time. The Récital 20 Astérium also has a backside on which we find the annual calendar, which is indicated by a single hand which makes a full rotation every 365.25 days. During this time, it not only tells the days and months but also shows the signs of the zodiac, as well as solstices, equinoxes and seasons. the case is water-resistant to 3 ATM / 30 M / 3 BAR / 100 FT. The Bovet Dimier Récital 20 Astérium Watch caliber 17DM02-SKY, Hand-wound, operates at a frequency of 18,000 vph (2,5 Hz), and offers a long power reserve of 720 hours when fully wound. The Bovet Dimier Récital 20 Astérium Watch, which is limited to only 60 pieces, is complemented by a black alligator strap and a Platinum pin buckle
